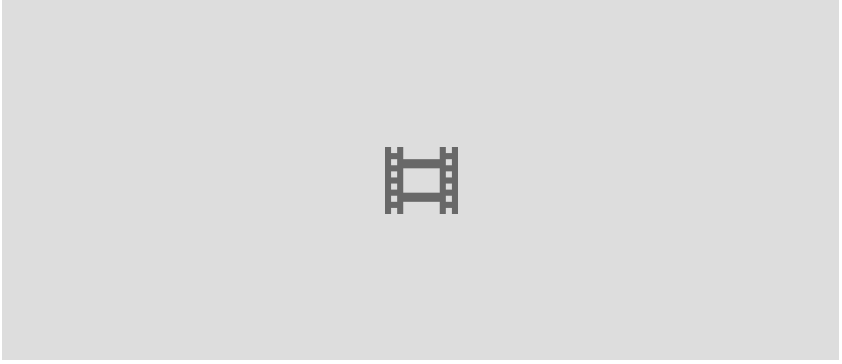
"Slow Hope When the Planet is Burning: Christof Mauch"

Berros, Valeria, and Christof Mauch



Berros, María Valeria, and Christof Mauch. "Slow Hope When the Planet is Burning: Christof Mauch." FCJS Podcast, 6 November 2026. 39:00 min. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xBlI1Rv0HJE.

Christof Mauch has degrees in philosophy, history, literature, and Protestant theology. He earned his Dr. phil. in modern literature (with a dissertation on Swiss poetry, 1990) and his Dr. phil. habil. in modern history (with a study on American secret intelligence, 1998). Since 2007 he has been running the Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society at LMU as its founding director. María Valeria Berros is a tenured lecturer in sociology and law (FCJS/UNL) and an independent researcher at CONICET. Both are part of the Speak4Nature - Interdisciplinary Approaches to Ecological Justice (MSCA-SE) project (MSCA-SE-2021 – 101086202), in which they are pursuing various lines of research and work related to the topic of this interview.
