Smithsonian Folkways: Sounds to Grow On podcast: "Animal Songs"

Asch, Michael and Robert Wiznura. “Animal Songs (Program #7)” Smithsonian Folkways: Sounds to Grow On podcast, 17 July 2009. MP3, 58:06.

In this show, host Michael Asch jumps into the world of animal sounds and songs about animals. Of course there are many songs about animals. But Michael’s father Moe Asch, the founder of Folkways Records, also released a number of recordings of animal sounds. Michael Asch pairs a song about an animal with the sounds of the animal, all from the wide ranging Folkways Records catalogue.
