Ehrlich, Paul R. The Population Bomb. New York: Buccaneer Books, 1968.

> "It has now been forty years since we wrote The Population Bomb (Ehrlich 1968). The book sold some 2 million copies, was translated into many languages, and changed our lives.
>
> There is not much disagreement about the significance of the volume—whether a person agrees with it or not, The Population Bomb helped launch a worldwide debate that continues today. It introduced millions of people to the fundamental issue of the Earth's finite capacity to sustain human civilization.
>
> We believe that despite its flaws, the book still provides a useful lens for viewing the environmental, energy, and food crisis of the present time."
