In this issue of Mendocino Environmental Center Newsletter, Joe Volk discusses the U.S. bombing attacks against Iraq; Bob Whitney tells the story of wilderness and over-dependence on oil and gas in Alaska; and David Giesen urges readers to recycle.

> President George Bush, we appeal to you to choose life that others may live; give us an agenda for peace and justice. President Saddam Hussein, we appeal to you to choose life that others may live; give your people a peace and justice agenda. You both have failed the public trust by taking our two nations to war.
