Mendocino Environmental Center Newsletter, Issue 17 (Fall 1994). Environment and Society Portal. Multimedia Library. http://www.environmentandsociety.org/node/8188.

In this issue of Mendocino Environmental Center Newsletter, Dana Stolzman discusses the Headwaters Forest Act; Gary Ball updates on the County Forest Practice Rules; and Bruce Haldane writes about the bombing of the Earth First! activists, Judi Bari and Darryl Cherney.

> A bomb exploded under the seat of Earth First! activist Judi Bari some four and a half years ago as she was driving on an Oakland, California street. Bari survived that blast—though she remains permanently disabled—and now she's getting in a few licks of her own.
