> In recent years, there has been an increase discussion of mental illness and mental health. Also, there have been cases which have shown that mental health issues may be particularly affecting public safety workers. Rose Ricciardelli is an Associate Professor at MUN, and has studied the mental health rates of correctional facility workers, and other public safety workers. In addition, she has studied the effects of remand prison time on people who have been incarcerated. In this podcast, John Sandlos talked with Rose Ricciardelli about her work.
