"Unequal Futures: Linking Nitrogen Species, Epistemologies, and Ontologies in Sustainable Development Governance"

San Martín, William

San Martín, William. "Unequal Futures: Linking Nitrogen Species, Epistemologies, and Ontologies in Sustainable Development Governance." Presentation at the Rachel Carson Center, LMU Munich, 11 November 2021, 28:33.

The Lunchtime Colloquium series consists of short, 20–30 minute presentations by RCC fellows and invited speakers. The talks are based on the presenters' own research, often focusing on their most recent project. Designed to stimulate discussion, the presentations are accessible and are aimed at a non-specialist audience.

Nina Wormbs is an associate professor at the Division of History of Science, Technology and Environment, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm.
